RE: ARTHUR J. CONNELL
National Vice Commander
American Legion

Dear Sir:

There is attached hereto a story appearing in Click magazine for January 1943 in which ARTHUR J. CONNELL, a close personal friend and contact, plays a leading role.

The article is entitled "Local Board 33, Middletown, Connecticut" and tells of the work of a local board and the life of its chairman ARTHUR CONNELL. Most of the persons depicted in the story are personal friends of mine including Editor Fred B. Smith of the Middletown Press, who addressed the quarterly police conference in Middletown during the last quarter. Mayor James Connery also has addressed several of the quarterly police conferences.

I am submitting the enclosed clipping as I thought it might be of interest to the Bureau. To make the story complete there should have been some mention of the work of the FBI in connection with the enforcement of the Selective Service Act.

Very truly yours,

R. H. Simons
Special Agent in Charge
